

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

PainPathways* Partners with National Conference for Nurse Practitioners (NCNP) and New York State Pain Society to Raise Pain Awareness

WINSTON-SALEM, North Carolina – May 11, 2013 – PainPathways shared pain management information with nurse practitioners at their national conference held May 1-4, 2013, in Nashville, Tennessee. An estimated 1,200 primary acute care clinicians attended to renew practical and critical thinking skills, share research findings and communicate with colleagues and exhibitors.

PainPathways also participated in the New York State Pain Society's annual meeting and scientific sessions in April, and will attend PainWeek, the National Conference of Pain for Frontline Practitioners in September in Las Vegas.

Give Patients More. Be a PainPathways Partner.

May is the last month to receive fifty (50) complimentary patient education copies of the spring issue, mailed to health care offices at no charge. Call 336-714-8389 for details.

How to Receive September's PAIN AWARENESS MONTH Special Issue.

To receive September's National Pain Awareness Month special issue, subscribe at www.painpathways.org/subscribe.

###

CONTACT:

Carol Harper, Managing Editor
carol.harper@painpathways.org
410-435-9666

PainPathways Magazine, based in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, is a quarterly print and digital resource for patients, physicians and caregivers who manage acute, chronic or cancer pain. To subscribe for home or office, visit www.painpathways.org or find us on Facebook, Pinterest, Twitter and LinkedIn.